Holden and Worth.

GOLDSBORO', Oct. 26, 1865.

From observation in an extensive tour in the State it is highly gratifying to see the feeling of the masses of the people in favor of Mr. Holden, the candidate of the National Union party for Governor.

The secession organ, which grinds out the daily lucubrations of the quondam parson at Raleigh must see through visual organs which extend no further than the limits of his sentry box if he believes one-fourth of what he says about the popularity of the secession candidate for Governor.

Mr. Worth would do himself more credit to retire from the field than to be made the tool of those wily disunionists who seek to make a cat's paw of him.

But the people of the West are not so much fascinated with the prospect of paying the rebel war debt as to place its champion in the chair of the Executive of the State.

The lawful taxes to meet the war debt hanging over the United States are sufficient to satisfy any man whose love for tax paying is anything short of a monomania; and I have not yet met one man who advocates the payment of these rebel obligations who was not directly interested in them.

We all know Mr. Holden to be opposed to the payment of a dollar of this bogus debt, and hence one great cause of opposition to him by the Shylocks who have foisted their champion, Jonathan Worth, on the people. Mr. Holden has been a steady opponent of this iniquitous scheme, and all others which are aimed against the rights of the people.

His opponents are not found among those brave men who fought in the Confederate armies for what they believed to be principle. These men emulate the noble example of Generals Robert E. Lee and Joseph E. Johnston, who have taken the amnesty oath in good faith and are doing all in their power to bring about a reconstruction of the Union on a permanent basis.

No, sir! the opponents of Mr. Holden are those old bomb-proof chaps who did so much to bring on the war, then bent all their energies to keep out of the army in the field, and now are striving might and main to prevent our restoration to civil government.

These men must be defeated in their selfish and designing plots. The Union men of this State have borne with them until endurance has almost ceased to be a virtue, and have now determined, one and all, to give them to understand that their occupation is gone.

Holden, and our place once more in the Union, is the motto which will on the 9th day of November next bear us on to victory. VIATOR.

Prosperous.

There were in this port last evening four steamers bound for New York, and probably half a dozen sailing vessels. The steamer Euterpe sails this morning with every pound of freight she can possibly carry over the bar. The Commander follows her this evening similarly loaded to her utmost capacity.—The Fairbanks will sail as soon as she can fill up, and the Twilight, which arrived last evening, will probably get away on her regular sailing day, Saturday.

These steamers will hardly make an appreciable diminution in the freight now here waiting shipment north, while the railroads are bringing in cotton and naval stores much more rapidly than they can be taken away. Under this great rush of business, freights have advanced to nearly double the rates that have prevailed throughout the fall. Shippers beg the privilege of sending their cotton forward at one cent per pound, and their rosin at seventy-five cents and a dollar per barrel.

This activity of business can but produce happy results. It speaks volumes for the recuperative power of the country, and will go very far to invite a healthy immigration to the State.—Wil. Herald.

Fenian Excitement in Canada—The Sanders Kidnapping Case.

NEW YORK, October 31.—The Herald's special Toronto correspondent says the ministerial organ of the 31st, L'Union Nationale, in speaking of the contemplated Fenian invasion, declares the Government is organizing an army of forty thousand men, to be stationed along the entire frontier of Quebec and Toronto, and to garrison all frontier towns. Depositors are withdrawing the funds from the banks and a panic prevails. The French cadets who left for Mexico have turned up on the other side of the lake, where they have unpacked kits and settled down.

The Sanders kidnappers have been committed to jail until the spring term. The jury were censured and discharged by the judge for not giving in a verdict of conviction, after being eight days locked up.

How the Issue looks Abroad.

The Boston Post, one of the most able, dignified and influential democratic journals in the country, in speaking of the approaching election in this State, says:—"Governor Holden, of North Carolina, is warmly supported for the office of Governor of that State by a decided majority. Mr. Jonathan Worth has been nominated against Mr. Holden, and, although a gentleman of ability, and said to be a union man, his chance of success is not deemed great. The Raleigh Progress says, "every man who votes for Worth will vote to keep the State out and continue martial law and military rule in North Carolina."—We think there is some exaggeration in this, but are confident that Governor Holden's election would be most beneficial to the interests of the State."

The Mysterious Cave Under the City of Nashville.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Oct. 28, 1865.—Parties have for several days past been exploring the subterranean passages under the city.

Mr. A. Stewart descended one hundred and twenty-five feet from a cavern under Church street into a chasm below, and was drawn out almost suffocated by foul air.

Several relics were discovered, including fossils, bones, buttons, and stones resembling agate and marble.

The grand chamber of the cave is forty feet high, thirty feet wide, and eighty long.

Further explorations are to be made.

John Mitchel, Esq., arrived in Richmond, Tuesday evening. The Enquirer says:

"Mr. M. is looking somewhat thin, and is apparently much troubled by a hacking cough, but otherwise his health and spirits are good. He states that before leaving the Fort he was permitted to bid adieu to Mr. Jefferson Davis and Mr. C. C. Clay. These gentlemen are in comparatively good health, and bear up bravely under their ordeal. Mr. Davis is ever the same courteous and dignified gentleman he was always found to be, and he and Mr. Clay have extorted the admiration of all the officers and soldiers who come in contact with them. Mr. Clay has made every effort to secure a trial, even declaring his willingness to be brought before a Military Commission, rather than endure longer imprisonment with the hope of some future trial by jury.

"Mr. Mitchell will remain, for the present, with his family, at his residence on Fifth and Canal streets."

Fearful Hurricane at Key West—Twenty Vessels Wrecked in the Harbor.

The United States steamer Massachusetts, just arrived at Philadelphia, brings the following intelligence in regard to a severe gale on the Florida coast:

On Sunday, October 22d, while lying at anchor in the harbor off Key West, a gale sprang up in the morning, which towards night increased to a fearful hurricane, blowing until Monday afternoon. Every vessel in the harbor went ashore, except the Massachusetts.

Daylight on Monday morning revealed a frightful scene of desolation. Twenty wrecks were visible from the Lookout at Key West. A large ship, name unknown, went ashore high and dry on the reef near Key West light, at 9 A. M. It was afterwards ascertained that she was within seven miles of Moro Castle, bound into Havana, when the cyclone struck her.

Portions of the roof of the Government Coal Depot, Marine Hospital, and many private buildings were carried away, and other damage to a large amount done at Key West, the inhabitants of which place say it was the heaviest storm they have had since the hurricane of 1835, when the Sand Key Lighthouse was carried away.

At 9 A. M. on Tuesday, the 24th, the Massachusetts put to sea, homeward bound, the sea still running mountains high. Wrecks were visible along the whole extent of the Florida reef.

October 25th—Afternoon—Lat. 30 50 N., lon. 79 22 W., rescued the officers and crew of the brig Stella, from Cardenas for Portland, with a cargo of molasses. Nothing standing but her maintopmast. Abandoned the vessel a complete wreck, and in a sinking condition.

THE CITY.

☞Persons in city and country are requested, at all times, to furnish us verbal or written information of any events of public interest which may transpire in their neighborhoods, or of which they may have knowledge.

A MISAPPREHENSION.—We hear that there exists among certain of the soldiers here an impression that they are not in good odour with the civil authorities, particularly the city police. In this idea we have every reason to suppose they are wrong. It comes to us from a source entirely reliable that the officers of the corporation make no discriminations between citizen or soldier in suppressing outlawry. Their only basis of operation is that which springs from a desire to perform their duty impartially and with a view to the peace of the city. In fact, citizens appear to think they are not tolerated as freely as soldiers. We believe both parties are wrong. There is no reason why the police should desire the arrest of either class unless they insist, after admonition, in misbehaviour, or are detected in the commission of flagrant crimes. The prime object of law is the prevention, not the punishment of crime, and this we hope is the light in which our local officers move towards the performance of duties imposed by their position.

We are earnest in the desire to see the old order of amity restored—a cordial friendship established not only between citizen and soldier, but equally with respect to North and South, until geographical distinctions are absorbed in unbroken harmony in the Union. Let us without technical distinctions labor for such a result.

A MISTAKE.—The Raleigh correspondent of the "Nation" newspaper, printed in New York, writing from here under date of October 16th, furnishes the following:

"No one man was the acknowledged master and leader of the convention, as might very likely have been the case had William A. Graham received his pardon, or had Mr. Badger been a delegate. The absence of Mr. Badger, who is now an inmate of the State lunatic asylum, was frequently mentioned with regret, and reference was repeatedly made to him as "that great light."

We copy the preceding paragraph merely to say that the correspondent errs in his statement as to the whereabouts and condition of Hon. George E. Badger. He is at his residence in this city and the "great light" is undimmed so far as intellect is concerned. The matter in a nut-shell is, that Mr. B. is partially paralyzed. He occasionally, however, appears on our streets and is at all times free from any approach to insanity.

The paper in which the report we quote originally appeared, will of course repair the wrong unintentionally done Mr. Badger.

COUNTERFEIT NOTES.—A new counterfeit fifty dollar treasury note has been detected, and it is said a considerable amount has been taken by one of the government officials. It is pronounced by experts to be the best counterfeit yet issued and very difficult to detect. It can be known by the two following points: In genuine fifties the words "fifty" and figures 50 on end of the note and surrounding note and forming the border of the circle in the centre of the back, are octagonal. In the counterfeit they are nearly circular. In the genuine the large black letters, "United States," the black has straight lines and looks fair; in the counterfeit the black is picked and scratched, especially the "S" at the end of the latter word. In the genuine the lower half of "0" in 50 on the end, is a white line. In the counterfeit it is all covered with straight lines.

KEEP TO THE RIGHT.—Two vehicles, approaching at a rapid rate on yesterday, came within an ace of running into each other by the recklessness of one of the drivers in not turning to the right. This is the law of the road, the sidewalk and the bridge. When you pass a pedestrian on the sidewalk or street crossing, keep to the right. When you cross a bridge, take the right hand. When you are driving a team on the public highway, turn to the right and give half the way. In the case of a light vehicle meeting a heavily loaded wagon, we know it is customary for the former to turn out and give the other the track, but this is mere courtesy, as the law requires each to turn to the right and give half of the beaten way. This simple rule will avoid much confusion and prevent many collisions. So, in driving or walking, keep to the right.

MORE PARDONS.—The pardon policy of the government is operating largely in behalf of restoring men to property, political rights, and we hope, cementing their devotion to the old flag. In spite of the clap-trap of enemies, Gov. Holden is laboring to enfranchise his fellow-citizens upon as liberal scale and principle as any provisional officer in the regenerating States. It was announced from the executive office, yesterday, that the following persons would be entitled to vote next Thursday:

Chatham—John E Nettles, Hastin P Straughan, M J Ramsey, Robt N Gregg, H Henderson, Jos C Hooker, Isaac T Brooks.

Granville—H H Rowland, Peterson Thorpe, Warren Overby, Benjamin F Cheatham, Isaac H Davis.

Greene—Kinchen Corbett, S W Ormond.

GIPSIES.—Several families of these nomadic people are encamped, we understand, a short distance north of the city. They are living in tents of the shape of wagon covers, which are well filled with children and dogs. We have frequently read of the romantic life which these wandering people lead, but "can't see it" in the light of the encampment mentioned.

SIDEWALKS.—The sidewalk in front of this office is very much out of repair, so that when the rain descends a small pond of water accumulates much to the annoyance of sundry pedestrians, male and female. It ought to be repaired and will doubtless improve as soon as brick and sand can remedy the evil.

By-the-by, this is precisely the period of all others—before the cold weather sets in earnestly—for the people to look to the pavements in front of their dwellings as well as business places. If they long hesitate in doing the needful, the authorities who have the supervision of such matters will be apt to take it in hand.

BEWARE OF YE HORSE FLESH.—It is needful for persons in town and country to be careful how they trade horses—at least, swapping should never be indulged without the parties know each other. It seems that in cases which have been investigated the evidence was conclusive that the animals had not been stolen by the individuals who had them in hand. The real rogues capture horses, ride to points somewhat distant from the scene of theft, trade them to innocent parties, and their dupes not being able to identify or locate the real rascals, the blame and lossage fall on the guiltless.

We make mention of these facts in order that as few victims may be made as possible.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—We ask attention to the advertisements of

B. P. Williamson & Co.—Table ware and a variety of good things to fill it.

Bryan Brothers & Co.—Half Million Dollars Worth.

Maj. N. J. Frink, A. I. G.—He wants board in a private family. Capital officer—clever gentleman—good pay.

A GOOD THING.—A fellow on the train from Raleigh to Gaston, as we learn from the Petersburg Index, insulted a lady by some light remarks. When the train arrived at Weldon he was escorted aside by two gentlemen and most decently flogged. Served him right.

HACKMEN.—The Jehu population have occasion to be jubilant. The commissioner of internal revenue has decided that hereafter hackmen and cartmen will not be required to pay internal revenue taxes on the amount of their gross receipts.

LETTER FROM THE EDITOR.

WILLARD'S HOTEL,
Washington, October 31, 1865.

The event of yesterday was the presentation of the Tunisian Embassy to the President, which took place at 12 o'clock and the interview lasted about half an hour. The wife of the French Minister, her mother, the Agent of the Associated Press and a few others were present. The chief of the embassy read an address to the President in Arabic; the President read an address to the embassy in English; they shook hands and parted. I saw the embassadors here to-day for the first time; they are well dressed, good looking men. They are neither black nor white, but rather of a red color—much lighter than I expected from the descriptions I had seen in the papers. I suppose they have pretty well "done" Washington and that they will leave in a day or two.

I was at the rooms of the Press Association last night at a late hour, but there was no news of consequence, and what there was will reach you long before this letter. I find it takes letters and papers about one week to reach here from Raleigh.

John Mitchell, the Irish patriot, was released at Fortress Monroe, on parole, to-day, and was to proceed to Richmond.

The sensation published in the Herald about the trial of Mr. Davis was a fabrication, there being nothing known here, outside of official circles, as to what is to be done with him. My own impression is, however, that the government is disposed to pursue a lenient course towards the leaders of the rebellion, provided the people of the South shall prove themselves thoroughly loyal, which I hope they will do. I find a most kindly feeling pervading all classes here, and as to the good feeling of the Executive Department of the government towards the people of the South, there can be no doubt. The Executive and his advisers constitute but one department of of the government, however, and will have no absolute power to control Congress; but if the Conventions and Legislatures of the States that have been in rebellion do their whole duty, all will go well.—Three things are necessary, however, to the restoration of any State, and they will not secure the protection of the government until these are complied with. They are—1st. The abolition of slavery; 2d. The ratification of the constitutional amendment; and 3d. The prompt repudiation of all debts incurred for the prosecution of the rebellion. These things I know to be so, and I trust North Carolina will not hesitate to comply, promptly; and hence I trust that one of the first acts of our Legislature will be the ratification of the constitutional amendment. You have no doubt already received the dispatch of Mr. Seward to Governor Johnson, of Georgia, asserting, positively, that the government will require the States seeking admission to repudiate forever all rebel debts. And I would respectfully call the attention of the people of North Carolina, and more especially those of Wake, to the fact that this is exactly what I told them and the ground I took in the Convention campaign; and I now tell them that the ratification of the constitutional amendment, by the Legislature, is as essential to secure admission, as the repudiation of the rebel debt.

I spent an hour last night with the greatest of living American statesmen, Hon. W. H. Seward, Secretary of State. I met him at his own house, by appointment, and we had a full and unrestricted conversation. I found him very kindly disposed and I think entirely just towards the Southern people; and if they but perform well their own part they may rely upon his influence in their behalf. I believe that the main desire of his life is to see the Union restored upon a solid and permanent basis. He spoke in great kindness of North Carolina, assuring me that he had great confidence in the loyalty and devotion to the Union of the masses of her people. I do not feel permitted to speak in other than general terms of his conversation, but I can assure our people at home that they have no enemy in W. H. Seward. I must say that I was pleased with the interview, and I do not hesitate to say that the Southern people have never done Abraham Lincoln and W. H. Seward justice.

Gen. Schofield is here and enquires kindly after the condition of our people.

The finding in the Wirz case has not been made public and his fate is yet in doubt. Though he will no doubt be found guilty, I hardly think he will be hung.

Governor Parsons, of Alabama, is here.

The leading members, especially those connected with the government, enquire affectionately after Gov. Holden, and manifest great concern as to the result of the pending election in our State. I implore the people at home, by every principle of interest as well as patriotism, to stand by Gov. Holden. His defeat will certainly be the worst calamity that could befall the State at this time. Elect him, and my word for it, all will go well for us here; but his defeat will as surely create distrust and suspicion.—I do hope that the people of North Carolina will ultimately find out who their real friends are. The announcement of opposition to Gov. Holden created great surprise among those here in position to do us the most good. If the faction that put Mr. Worth forward really have the good of the State and country at heart, let them show it by withdrawing him. He is not known here and could not exercise one tenth part of the influence in our behalf that Gov. Holden can. I do not write thus to influence the election, but simply state facts as I know them to exist.

There is a division of sentiment here relative to the Test Oath, but I find the best informed believe the majority will adhere to it and that no person elected to Congress will be allowed to take his seat unless he can take it. It will be recollected that I urged that no one run for Congress but such gentlemen as could take the oath; and had demagogues and agitators been content to stand aside for just one time, every obstacle to our return to the Union would have been removed. Our Representatives may enter without taking the test oath, but I don't believe it.

Prominent men from all the States in the South are here and constantly besieging the President, whose position must be anything but an easy one at the present time. P.

A Letter from Jefferson Davis.

[From the Louisville Democrat.]

We give below a private letter to a friend in this city, which was not for publication, and which, therefore gives the sincere views and feelings of the author at the time:

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22, 1861.

Dear Sir:—I have the pleasure to acknowledge yours of the 27th ult. I am on the eve of a departure for Mississippi, in obedience to her command and in accordance with my own views of the necessity of the South. To you I need not say that the event is to me a painful one: but there remains to me the consolation that I have failed in nothing that promised to preserve the Constitution, and thus perpetuate the Union as our fathers made it:

After some remarks on private matters, he adds:

I hope Kentucky, the land of my nativity, will soon take her place in the Southern column. The Union of the South can now alone preserve peace, and in the united strength of the South this is the only hope for justice and a reconstruction of the Government upon a basis that will secure the ends for which it was originally established.

[Subscribed.] Your friend,
JEFF. DAVIS.

Lynch Law in Utica, N. Y.

UTICA, N. Y., Oct. 31.—A family named Loomis, who have managed to escape legal punishment, last night were mobbed at their house, near Waterville. Their abode was surrounded in the night by a large crowd of people, supposed to be a vigilance committee, composed of citizens of the towns of Marshall and Sangerfield. They burned the buildings on the place with the exception of the dwelling house, all the property in the barns, including eight horses.

One of the family, said to be Washington Loomis, was killed outright, and his brother, Grove Loomis, was mortally injured. Another account says that neither were killed, but that they were terribly beaten, their skulls being fractured in several places. Both were alive this afternoon, but there are no hopes of their recovery. No arrests have been made. This evening there is much excitement in Utica and throughout the county, in reference to the matter.

—The police of New York, on Saturday, pounced upon a depot for the storage of counterfeit Treasury notes, and arrested the occupant, Francisco Bohagar, an Italian. One hundred and eleven thousand dollars, put up in one thousand dollar packages, were found.

ELECTION NOTICES.

FELLOW-CITIZENS OF THE COUNTY OF WAKE.—Having been solicited by numerous friends to become a candidate for a seat in the next Legislature in the House of Commons, I take this opportunity of announcing myself a candidate. If elected, I will support the Governmental management of the present Executive, and will be found voting for the strictest economy in the disbursement of all State and county officers. I shall oppose the borrowing of money by issuing State bonds, which, at the present time, would have to be sold at a very great sacrifice. Economy is, in my opinion, the only safe road.

I have been raised, and have lived all my life, and am known to nearly all the voters in the county. My views and opinions are, therefore, as well known as I could make them, should I visit every precinct. I am opposed to negro suffrage and negro testimony. If elected, I promise to make you a faithful servant.

I shall support W. W. Holden for Governor.

nov2-tde H. O. PARKER.

ANDREW JOHNSON, HOLDEN UNION TICKET. DR. WM. SLOAN, of Gaston County, will be supported most heartily for the House of Representatives of the United States Congress, by all loyal men looking to early restoration and general harmony.

Dr. Sloan's record will furnish no data for his rejection at the hands of the Federal Congress. This, the Charlotte District, is now the 6th.

nov1-3t* MANY VOTERS.

WE ARE AUTHORIZED TO ANNOUNCE RUFUS K. FERRELL as a candidate for the House of Commons of the next General Assembly. Election on the 9th November. oct31-tde

WE ARE AUTHORIZED TO ANNOUNCE MAJOR WM. F. COLLINS a candidate to represent Granville county in the House of Commons of the ensuing Legislature. His sentiments will be published in the form of a circular "To the People of Granville." Read it. oct31-tde

TO THE VOTERS OF WAKE COUNTY.—At the request of many voters, I am a candidate in this county for the House of Commons of the General Assembly.

The Convention requested the Governor to appoint a committee of three persons to prepare and report to the Legislature a system of laws for freedmen, and to specify what laws relating to them ought to be repealed.

He has done me the honor to designate me as one of them. This work, with their indispensable engagements, will so occupy my whole time as to forbid my mingling much, if any, with the people. I shall represent your sentiments on all constitutional measures, if they are known to me.

I avail myself of this occasion to assure you of my grateful sense of your confidence recently expressed in electing me to the Convention. If I am honored again by your confidence I shall strive to merit it by my services. Very respectfully, yours, oct30-tde B. F. MOORE.

TO THE VOTERS OF WAKE COUNTY.—I announce myself as a candidate for the office of Superior Court Clerk of Wake county, at the ensuing election on the 9th of November, and if elected, will serve you with industry and fidelity.

It will be impossible for me to see you all before the election, and you will naturally wish to know what I am for and against. I am for David A. Wicker, alias Snider, for Superior Court Clerk, and against Bunting, alias Mose, and Buck Moore.

Hoping you will vote for me, I am your obedient servant, [oct27-tde] DAVID A WICKER.

TO THE VOTERS OF THE FOURTH CONGRESsional District, composed of the counties of Orange, Chatham, Granville, Warren, Franklin, Nash, Johnston and Wake:

FELLOW-CITIZENS:—I hereby announce myself a candidate to represent you in the next Congress of the United States. The short time between this and the day of election precludes the possibility of a canvass.—Indeed, in the present condition of the country, a heated political campaign should be deprecated by all.—The particular measures that will claim the attention of the ensuing Congress cannot now with certainty be known. Hence, idle speculations and precedent pledges are, for the most part, vain and unnecessary. There is a question, however, which seems to be agitating, to some extent, the minds of the people, both North and South, but which properly comes within the purview of the State Legislature. I allude to negro suffrage, to which I am utterly opposed. I am in favor, as no doubt all of us are, of the speedy restoration of civil law in the State.

If I am honored, fellow-citizens, by your suffrages with a seat in Congress, I can only promise you to guard zealously your best interests—to devote what ability I may possess to the advocacy and preservation of all your rights—and to uphold and maintain, to the full extent of my power, whatever measures will redound to the welfare, freedom and honor of North Carolina. I sincerely and ardently desire that our people may soon be restored to the enjoyment of all their rights of both person and property, and that they may again be blessed with prosperity, liberty and happiness.

Very respectfully, your obedient servant,

A H ARRINGTON.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.

In the year 1846, the writer embarked in the Drug Business in the city of Philadelphia, and while thus engaged, made several experiments in regard to the most desirable mode of preparing Fluid Extracts. My efforts being successful—the articles being approved and used by the medical faculty—I was desirous of placing them before the public, but hesitated for some time. Before concluding to resort to newspaper advertising, knowing of the prejudices that existed in the minds of many against using advertised Medicines or Nostrums, but through the advice of friends and those who had used them this objection was overcome.

After 18 years' exertions, commencing in a small way, the popularity of my articles has extended to all parts of the United States, and widely throughout foreign countries—and this in the face of much opposition.—Every means has been resorted to by unprincipled dealers since their merit and success have been known—such as advertising large bottles at less price, censuring all other preparations, and even copying my advertisements—but I am happy to state that out of the many who have resorted to this, none have been successful.

MY OBJECT

in this notice is to make facts known to the public and respectable dealers, believing, after so many years' exertions, that the Druggists will discountenance such proceedings, and that the reputation of my articles may not be damaged by the use of inferior or spurious ones.

Knowing that many may read this article who are unacquainted with me, I append a few remarks from those of my native city, and whose names are known in all parts of the world:

"Being personally acquainted with Mr. H. T. Helmbold, it affords me pleasure in stating I have been most favorably impressed with his energy and integrity, and gratified at his success" WM. WEIGHTMAN,
Firm of Powers & Weightman,
Ninth and Brown Streets, Philadelphia.

[Evening Bulletin, Philadelphia.]

"When on a visit to the city of New York, a few days since, I was induced to call on our old friend and townsman, Mr. H. T. Helmbold, Druggist, 594 Broadway, N. Y. His store is a model—a perfect gem—the handsomest of any kind we have ever had the pleasure of viewing, and so extensive, being 34 feet front, five stories in height, and over 200 feet deep. It indeed affords us much pleasure to know that he has been so successful and it is ample evidence of the merits of his articles—as in our whole business experience we have not known of the success of any articles without merit—advertising merely bringing the name before the people."

[Boston Herald.]

"We do not like to advertise worthless wares, or articles calculated to deceive our readers; and when we see an advertiser like Mr. Helmbold, whom we have known for years, gradually extend his advertising from year to year until he becomes the largest advertiser in the United States, we are satisfied that the statements in regard to his articles must be correct."

The writer reluctantly inserts the above, and would not do so were he not a stranger to many; and concludes by stating the names of his articles, and the diseases for which they have been used by many thousands with complete success.

BURNING OF THE MUSEUM!
LETTER FROM MR. P. T. BARNUM!

NEW YORK, July 14, 1865.

Messrs. Herring & Co.:

GENTLEMEN—Though the destruction of the American Museum has proved a serious loss to myself and the public, I am happy to verify the old adage that "It's an ill wind that blows nobody good," and, consequently, congratulate you that your well-known safes have again demonstrated their superior fire-proof qualities in an ordeal of unusual severity.

The safe you made for me some time ago was in the office of the Museum, on the second floor, back part of the building, and in the hottest of the fire.

After twenty-four hours of trial it was found among the debris, and on opening it this day has yielded up its contents in very good order—books, papers, policies of insurance, bank bills, all in condition for immediate use, and a noble commentary on the trustworthiness of Herring's Fire-Proof Safes.

Truly yours,
P. T. BARNUM,

HERRING'S PATENT CHAMPION SAFES.

The most reliable protection from fire now known.

NEW SKIRT FOR 1865.
The Great Invention of the Age in Hoop Skirts.

J. W. BRADLEY'S NEW PATENT DUPLEX ELLIPTIC, (OR DOUBLE) SPRING SKIRT.

THIS INVENTION CONSISTS OF DUPLEX (OR two) Elliptic Pure Refined Steel Springs, ingeniously braided tight and firmly together, edge to edge, making the toughest, most flexible, elastic and durable Spring ever used. They seldom bend or break, like the Single Springs, and consequently preserve their perfect and beautiful shape more than twice as long as any Single Spring Skirt that ever has or can be made.

The wonderful flexibility and great comfort and pleasure to any Lady wearing the Duplex Elliptic Skirt will be experienced particularly in all crowded Assemblies, Operas, Carriages, Railroad Cars, Church Pews, Arm-Chairs, for Promenade and House Dress, as the Skirt can be folded when in use to occupy a small place as easily and conveniently as a Silk or Muslin Dress.

A Lady having Enjoyed the Pleasure, Comfort and Great Convenience of wearing the Duplex Elliptic Steel Spring Skirt for a single day will never afterwards willingly dispense with their use. For Children, Misses and Young Ladies they are superior to all other.

The Hoops are covered with 2 ply double twisted thread and will wear twice as long as the Single yarn covering which is used on all Single Steel Hoop Skirts. The three bottom rods on every Skirt are also Double Steel, and twice or double covered to prevent the covering from wearing off the rods when dragging down stairs, stone steps, &c., &c., which they are constantly subject to when in use.

All are made of the new and elegant Corded Tapes, and are the best quality in every part, giving to the wearer the most graceful and perfect shape possible, and are unquestionably the lightest, most desirable, comfortable and economical Skirt ever made.

WEST'S, BRADLEY & CARY, (late J. I. & J. C. West,) Proprietors of the Invention, and sole manufacturers, 97 Chambers and 79 & 81 Reade Streets, New York.

For sale in all first-class stores in this City, and throughout the United States and Canada, Havana de Cuba, Mexico, South America and the West Indies.

A gentleman who reached Raleigh last night informs us that the National Express Company has been organized, with Dr. Wm. J. Hawkins, of this State, as one of the directors. Gen. Joseph E. Johnston was chosen president.

Returns from all the districts in South Carolina give Orr, for governor, 500 majority over Hampton. Gov. Perry was chosen Senator for the long term ending in 1871.

Hon. Caleb Cushing is going to England, if at all, to settle the Alabama claims, or to confer on business relating to the Hudson Bay company's affairs.

TO THE

PEOPLE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

WHEREAS, A CONVENTION OF THE PEOPLE of North Carolina has been chosen in pursuance of the proclamation of ANDREW JOHNSON, President of the United States, of date May 29th, 1865, under the fourth section of the fourth article of the Constitution of the United States, which guarantees to every State in the Union a republican form of government, for the purpose of enabling the loyal people of said State to organize a State government, whereby justice may be established, domestic tranquility restored, and loyal citizens protected in all their rights of life, liberty and property; and for the purpose also of restoring said State to its Constitutional relations to the Federal Government, by presenting such a republican form of government as will entitle the State to the guarantees of the United States therefor, and its people to protection by the United States against invasion, insurrection and domestic violence: And said Convention having assembled in the City of Raleigh and adopted Ordinances hereinafter set forth, I, WILLIAM W. HOLDEN, Provisional Governor of said State, do hereby proclaim and declare that an election will be held in the various counties of said State on Thursday, the ninth day of November, 1865, as follows:

1st. For the ratification or rejection of "An Ordinance declaring null and void the ordinance of May the 20th, 1861."

2d. For the ratification or rejection of "An Ordinance prohibiting slavery in the State of North Carolina."

3d. For a Governor and members of the General Assembly.

4th. For seven members of the House of Representatives of the Congress of the United States.

5th. For Clerks and Sheriffs of the respective counties.

"The elections shall be conducted in accordance with "An Ordinance providing for the election of the members of the General Assembly, to be convened on the fourth Monday of November, eighteen hundred and sixty-five, and for electing Representatives in Congress and Governor of the State," ratified by the Convention the tenth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, and hereinafter set forth; said Ordinance having been passed in pursuance of the proclamation of the President of the United States, of date May 29th, 1865, authorizing said Convention to "prescribe the qualifications of electors, and the eligibility of persons to hold office under the constitution and laws of the State." And also, in conformity with the rules and regulations prescribed by the laws of this State concerning said elections, in force previous to the 20th day of May, 1861.

The people of the State are respectfully urged to maintain order among themselves at the election, and to discountenance appeals, the tendency of which may be to produce ill-feeling and alienation towards the Federal Government. The policy of the government has been liberal and generous towards North Carolina, and no pains should be spared to secure a continuance of this policy.

And the officers in the various counties, appointed by the Provisional Governor, are enjoined to exert themselves to preserve the peace among the people on the day of the election; to act with justice and firmness in all matters that may claim their attention; to see that those entitled to vote are protected in their right of suffrage, and that every manifestation, if such manifestation there should be, of hostility to the Federal Government, is promptly rebuked and repressed.

Done at our city of Raleigh, the 18th day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, and in the year of the Independence of the United States the ninetieth.

W. W. HOLDEN, Provisional Governor.

By the Governor: W. R. RICHARDSON, Private Sec.
